

WILLIAM STEVENS - 7.

A. Down round the house turned right straight toward the back to Jones Avenue to George Street and down to the church.

Q. How close did you walk with her?

A. Side by side.

Q. Late at night?

A. Yes.

Q. Walked close to your sister?

A. Yes.

Q. Your feeling was you were going to protect her if necessary?

A. Yes.

Q. You went to the church?

A. Tried the vestry door he would invariably go in.

Q. You found that locked?

A. Yes.

Q. Then what did you do?

A. Walked down and passed the Mills house thinking he might be there, some one sick. Did not stay and went through Carmen Street and came back.

Q. What made you conclude there was no one sick there?

A. That was my sister's conclusion. I don't know.

Q. Was she very much agitated about the absence of her husband?

A. She was.

Q. Do you remember, has he ever stayed out that late before?,

A. No. It was his regular habit of always notifying us if he was going to stay out late.

Q. He did not notify you that night?

A. No.

Q. You did not arouse the Mills family to see if any one was sick?

A. No, we did not go near enough to arouse anybody.
